Page 3

- 1. Arrange the blocks in the order you would like for the bottom of the wall hanging.
- 2. Starting with the first block at the left, attach (1) 1 1/2" x 7 1/2" strip to the right side. Pic A

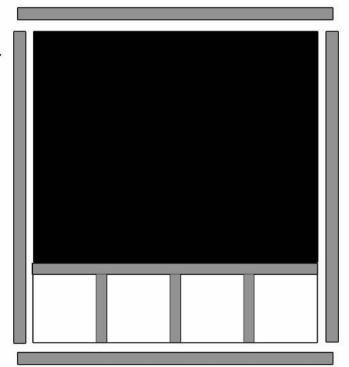

- 3. Attach the next block to the strip. Alternate 1 1/2" wide strip between each block.
- 4. Take (1) 1 1/2" x WOF strip and attach to the top of the block strip you created. Trim excess

- 5. Attach the black chalkboard rectangle at the top of the block strip. PIC C
- Add a 1 1/2" vertical strip to each side.
   Trim length to fit.
   Then add a 1 1/2" strip at the top and bottom.
   Trim to fit.

- 6. Take (1) 4 1/2" x 5 1/2" strip and fold with right sides together. Stitch long edge closed. Turn and press flat. Repeat for the (5) other strips.
- 7. Fold each in half length wise and with open edges at top edge of the wallhanging, space evenly across the top. PIC D
  They will be about 3" apart. Edge stitch to hold in place. PIC E
- 8. Trim backing square to match the size of the wallhanging.
- 9. With right sides together, place the backing on top of the wallhanging.
- 10.Place both on top of the batting with batting on wrong side of the wallhanging. Stitch around around all sides being careful that the hanging loops are flat and do not get caught in the seam at the sides.

  Leave a 4-5" opening at the bottom for turning.
- 11. Turn to the right side, press seams flat and slipstitch bottom opening closed.
- 12. Now you can quilt as desired. The wallhanging can be hung on a curtain rod or wooden dowel.
