LITTLE GIRL QUILT

Construction: (1/4" seam allowance is included).

Take all of your "pink and orange stripe" and "white spot" squares measuring 2½". Sew the squares together alternately to create 5 strips of 21 squares. One of your strips should begin and end with a white square and the remaining four should begin and end with a pink stripe square.
Press.

Take two of your strips that begin with a pink stripe square and one that begins with a white square. Sew these three strips together along the length to create the centre checkerboard panel.
Press.

Paying attention to ensure that the direction is correct (refer to quilt image) sew a green elephant strip to either side of your checkerboard panel.
Press.

Sew a yellow/pink flower check strip to the remaining raw edges of each of your green elephant strips.
Press.

Sew a pink monkey strip to the remaining raw edges of each of your yellow/pink flower check strips.
Press.

Sew a 2" green cross-stitch strip to the remaining raw edges of each of your pink monkey strips.
Press.

Sew a pink owl strip to the remaining raw edges of each of your green cross-stitch strips.
Press.

Sew a blue/yellow/red button flower strip to the remaining raw edges of each of your pink owl strips.
Press.

Sew a yellow bees strip to the remaining raw edges of each of your blue/yellow/red button flower strips. Press.

Sew your two remaining green elephant strips to the remaining raw edges of each of your yellow bees strips (paying attention to direction).
Press.

Sew your remaining checkerboard strips to the remaining raw edges of each of your green elephant strips to complete your quilt.
Press.

Back, baste and quilt as desired.

Sew your five 2½" lengths of remaining stripe fabric together, end to end, to form one length. Use this to bind your quilt following the continuous binding method.
